Mary Lou

"Sandra really helped me put together outfits for some events and she had such a cheerful attitude and a lot of patience making me feel at ease during the selection process. After wearing what she chose I received so many compliments. Being an older woman she was able to dress me age appropriate but still in fashion."

Ilia

"Sandra is a pleasure to work with. She's authentic and makes you feel comfortable. She's affordable yet you always walk away feeling current and chic."

Jackie

"It was a pleasure to shop with Sandra. Upon turning 40, I was confused as what that ( 40) should look like both personally and professionally. Sandra's keen eye for detail and attention to body-type was not only a huge help but also refreshing. We left the store, one I never would have entered on my own, with many useful and great finds that I wear often. I can't wait to take advantage of Sandra's natural talent for style again in the future! Rachel Zoe has nothing on Sandra Veum!"

Violet

"I loved working with Sandra. She was so helpful in teaching me styles that fit my shape. She was kind, honest, professional and fun to be with. She gave me great insight, and the pieces I bought are still some of my favorites. I can't wait for another shopping day" !

Claire

"Sandra always gives an honest opinion. Being a college student it's not always easy to stay fashionable on a tight budget. She knows where the stores are that I can get the most fashion for my money."

Mike

"After contacting Sandra regarding my wife Molly's "closet issues" I was very impressed with the way she presented her service. As a husband I sometimes (ok, all the time) struggle with finding the right gift for my wife. Sandra not only provided me with a wonderful birthday package to present to my wife, she also provided her with a great experience with the reorganization of her closet and wardrobe. Hiring Mariposa to reorganize Molly's closet and wardrobe was a fun, unique gift that she really enjoyed. I would recommend Mariposa to any husband looking for a truly unique gift for his wife."

Molly

"Sandra has been a dear friend of mine for almost 20 years and I have always admired her style. For most of those years I would just stand in my closet and say to myself, "What would Sandra wear today?" Needless to say, I was beyond ecstatic when my husband presented me with a beautiful Mariposa gift package. I was excited to have a closet 'overhaul' and a day of shopping! I cannot put into words just how Sandra was able to work the magic she did in my closet. I now feel like I have so many new options with what I already own. The shopping was just the icing on the cake! Sandra knew what essential pieces were missing from my wardrobe and within a couple of hours I had what I needed!"

"Thanks so much for helping me choose outfits for our upcoming conference. I appreciated your knowledge, ability to negotiate with store staff and help in making choices that are both professional and stylish. You showed respect for my likes, yet challenged me to try things just that are just a little different. I was impressed how you went out of your way to be sure my outfit was complete and perfect! It was a great experience!"

"Sandra, thanks for all the fun and ideas while doing my closet evaluation. I am so impressed with how much you did in a short time. You gave me a lift out of my wardrobe rut of just getting dressed instead of having fun and making a statement. I am looking forward to our shopping date as well to continue the momentum."

Claire

"I recently had only a few days to find the perfect outfit for a very important event. Sandra met with me and got to know not only my style preference, but also how I specifically wanted to present myself at the event. She then took me shopping and I was so impressed with her efficiency and skill at finding the ideal look. In less than 2 hours she had my outfit completely put together and even sewed the perfect button on it for me. Thank you Sandra for your invaluable help...I can't wait to use your services again."

Nancy

Sandra Veum with Mariposa is the best! I highly recommend her services. She is creative, smart, fun and totally knows her "stuff". My closet overhaul was a wonderful gift to myself and without buying any new clothes, I have tons of new outfits and great fashion ideas. In one session, I went from FRUMP to fabulous. WOW!
